

NEW TRANSIT LINE OPENED.

Extension from Hunt's Point to 177th Street Put Into Operation.

An additional section of the east side rapid transit system, extending two and a quarter miles from Hunt's Point Avenue to 177th Street, was put into operation one minute after midnight today. Passengers desiring to reach the temporary terminal on the north will have to use shuttle trains from 177th Street.

It is expected the remaining section, from 177th Street to Pelham Bay Park, will be completed this Fall. The total cost of the extension to Pelham Bay Park will be $5,287,000.

The New York Times

Published: May 30, 1920

Copyright © The New York Times